Additional Information

As part of the Silent Auction crew, we will be inside a tent in the main bowl. We will have chairs around the inside of the tables (in our tent) though standing and walking around the tent are possible. We will be interacting with festival goers, answering questions about our fundraising efforts and about the items we have up for auction. We will confirm bids ensuring that information (name, contact info) is legible and that the bid and minimum bid increments are respected. Some walking to other areas may be required to pick up items that are ready to be auctioned off.
