

BACKSTAGE HOSPITALITY

Passionate about creating a comfortable environment and making sure things run smoothly? If so, join this team of professional individuals that serve backstage members and create the PERFECT good vibe hangout area.

Backstage Hospitality is responsible for addressing artists' requests and is located behind or near each stage. Volunteers in this area are expected to demonstrate exceptional professionalism, maturity and commitment, working cohesively to create a relaxing, fun, safe and secure performer experience, as set out by the Backstage Hospitality Manager.

*This is a privately-recruited area that provides great motivation to volunteers to practice and strengthen their management skills because leadership positions in this area are staffed from within.
